

Wycombe Wanderers have been drawn away to Bromley in the second round of the Carabao Cup, with the tie to be played in the week commencing Monday 25th August.

Mike Dodds' side progressed to the second stage of the competition thanks to a last-gasp 1-0 victory at Leyton Orient in round one.

The League Two outfit - a former club of Blues star Garath McCleary - stunned Championship side Ipswich Town in round one, winning on penalties.

Confirmation of the date, time and ticket details for the second round tie will be announced in due course.
