

Swindon Town Under-18s suffered a 2-0 defeat to Wycombe Wanderers Under-18s in the Youth Alliance League.

In what was a disappointing afternoon for the Robins, Wycombe started the match on the front foot, and after multiple chances, they took the lead in the 15th minute. After the goal, Swindon attempted to push to level the game, but they just couldn't find the target. Attempts came from Lucas Griffiths-Brown, who did well to run in behind the Wycombe defence, see his shot blocked, and Harry Gray, who shot just over. In the 37th minute, Wycombe extended their lead with a penalty.

Half-Time: Swindon Town 0-2 Wycombe Wanderers

The second half started off very cagey, with few chances for either side. In the 60th minute, Louis Millard found space to shoot just on the edge of the box, forcing a great save by the Wycombe goalkeeper. Jo Owiti also came close for Town after a powerful shot from inside the box was blocked by the Wycombe defence. Swindon's final chance came in the 89th minute after Louis Millard broke through the defensive line and unleashed a great shot; however, the Wycombe goalkeeper pulled off an incredible save to keep the clean sheet for the visitors. Despite Swindon's best efforts, the scoreline remained the same throughout the second half, with Wycombe beating Town by two goals to nil.
