

Jamie Mullins was on target for the Republic of Ireland under-21 side in their 2-2 draw with Slovakia in Cork on Friday night.

The midfielder smashed home a superb equaliser early in the first half and went on to play the full 90 minutes.

Jaiden Bartolo also featured for Gibraltar under-21s, playing the full 90 in their 12-0 defeat to Scotland.

They take on Portugal under-21s on Tuesday evening.
