

Wycombe Wanderers were honoured to welcome dignitaries to Adams Park for Saturday's remembrance activities ahead of the 4-1 victory over Leyton Orient.

A pre-match ceremony involved readings from RAF High Wycombe padre Jonathan Stewart and Spirit of Normandy Trust representative Richard Palasinski, before the teams gathered around the centre circle for a period of remembrance which included a reading of the Kohima Epitaph by Leading Cadet Alex Taylor and veterans Ken Hay and Henry Rice, along with a recital of The Last Post and a silence.
