

Jamie Mullins has been selected for international duty with the Republic of Ireland Under-21 squad for their forthcoming internationals.

The midfielder has six caps already at under-21 level, scoring once, and could add to his tally with appearances in the UEFA Euro U21 qualifiers against Moldova on 4th September and Andorra five days later.

As a consequence, he'll be unavailable for the Wanderers' fixtures against Colchester United in the Vetu Trophy on Tuesday 2nd September, and Mansfield Town in League One on Saturday 6th September.

Caolan Boyd-Munce will also be on international duty at the same time, having been called up by the Northern Ireland senior squad.
