

James Berry has returned to former club Chesterfield on a season-long loan.

The 24-year-old arrived at Adams Park from the League Two club in January and played three times last season.

Good luck James!