Wycombe couldn't convert their dominance into goals as they fell to a 1-0 defeat to Sutton United in the second round of the Carabao Cup at Adams Park on Tuesday night.

Aiden O'Brien scored the only goal of the game for the visitors in the first half, with Wanderers squandering a succession of chances in the second period to level the scores.

Matt Bloomfield's men started brightly, seeing efforts from Garath McCleary and Freddie Potts repelled, while Richard Keogh headed a promising chance over before O'Brien latched onto to a flick-on to convert past Max Stryjek.

Sutton kicked on and enjoyed a good spell of territory as they looked to build on their lead, but the second half belonged firmly to the Blues, with two efforts coming back off the post and substitute David Wheeler twice missing the target with headers as the pressure cranked up without reward.
